

Edo Day at ROM

Come enjoy traditional Japanese music, Art crafts and more which have accompanied Japanese festivals and theatre since ancient times.

March 12th Saturday

March 13th Sunday

What's happening?

- Edo Music Live

Three musicians from Japan play traditional music developed in the 18th century.

Where: Level 2, Bronfman Hall

What Time: 11:30 – 11:50, 1:30 – 1:50, 3:00 – 3:20

- Lion Dance

Two mythical Japanese lions dance accompanied by bamboo flute. Come and say hello to the lions!

Where: Level 2, Bronfman Hall

What Time: 11:25 – 11:30, 1:25 – 1:30, 2:55 – 3:00

- Wood Printing Demonstration

Celebrated Canadian Woodblock Print Artist David Bull demonstrates how to print pictures using traditional materials and methods from the 18th century.

Where: Level 1, Entrance area of Asian Gallery

What Time: 11:00 – 4:00

- Ikebana Demonstration

Instructors from Ikebana International demonstrate traditional Japanese flower arranging and how to combine and display flowers for the best effect.

Where: Level 1, Entrance area of Asian Gallery

What Time: 12:00 – 12:30, 2:00 – 2:30

- Edo Brooch Workshop

Tsumami is a traditional craft technique from the Edo period. A craft maker from Orika Canada will show you how to create a flower brooch which you can then take home!

Where: Level 1, Entrance area of Asian Gallery

What Time: 11:00 – 16:00